

NYB 2010

MAY 8 - 15 , 2010
BRITISH COLUMBIA

DR. WAYNE
JEFFREY,
MUSIC DIRECTOR

IAN MCDUGALL
TROMBONE
YAMAHA CANADA
GUEST ARTIST

First we visited Al Capone and then we performed at the Moose Jaw International Band Festival - May 2009.

Canadian Band Association's Flag Ship Project heads west. British Columbia here we come!

The National Youth Band of Canada (NYB) is the Canadian Band Association's flagship project. The CBA was formed in 1934 to "promote and develop the musical, educational and cultural values of band music in Canada." In 1978, 1991, and annually since 1994, the National Youth Band of Canada has offered an unparalleled musical opportunity for outstanding Canadian instrumentalists, woodwind, brass and percussion, between the ages of 16 and 21.

Martin Boundy, Dr. Dennis Prime, Bramwell Tovey, André Jutras, James Hargreaves, Stéphane LaForest, Bobby Herriot, Dr. Gerald King, Dr. Glenn Price, Dr. Gillian MacKay, Dr. Tania Miller, Alain Cazes, Dr. Denise Grant, Marvin Eckroth, Dr. Fraser Linklater, Dr. Karem Simon, Colin Clarke, and Dr. Shelley Jagow are all accomplished Canadian musicians and conductors who have brought outstanding artistry and musicianship to the NYB podium.

Acting as Music Director for the 2010 National Youth Band of Canada will be Dr. Wayne Jeffrey, director of ensembles at Kwantlen University College.

NYB 2009 Quick Facts

Musicians involved in NYB	61
Hours rehearsed at NYB	32
Number of NYB Concerts	5
Concert attendance	2057

Yamaha Canada provides a guest artist to perform with the NYB. The 2010 soloist is Ian McDougall, Trombone!

Rehearsals for NYB 2010 will commence in the Vancouver area on Saturday May 8, 2010. The ensemble will be featured at performances in various locations in British Columbia. Participants return home Saturday May 15, 2010. NYB 2010 Participation Fee is $400 plus transportation and meals.

For more information about the National Youth Band of Canada visit www.nyb.ca or email at troylinsley@sasktel.net

NYB 2009 in concert at Centennial Collegiate in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

2010 Audition Requirements

Brass/Woodwinds/Double Bass

Scales: Full Chromatic
F and Ab Major Concert
(two octaves with arpeggios)

Solos: Two contrasting solos or etudes

Percussion

Scales: Full Chromatic
F and Ab Major Concert
(two octaves with arpeggios)

Solos: One solo or etude performed on Tympani, Mallets and Snare Drum

Copies of Audition Music:

One copy of all music performed for audition must be included in your audition package. Be sure to indicate clearly what passages were performed (please do not send originals).

Recording your audition:

Make the recording the highest quality possible. CD and/or cassette tapes are accepted. Please write your name on the recording with your submission. (Auditions are anonymous and this information is not shared with the jurors.) Do not digitally alter a recording or splice during a scale, arpeggio, piece or etude.

NYB 2010 Audition Application Form:

Name: (Miss/Mr.): _____

Primary Instrument: _____ Second Instrument: _____

Address: _____
street address

City/Town

Province

Postal Code

Home Telephone: () _____ Cell Phone: () _____

Email: _____

* All future correspondence from the NYB will be via email. Please write clearly ****

Age: _____ Birth Date: _____

as at Jan 1, 2010

Day

Month

Year

NYB applicants must be between 16 and 21 years of age as at January 1, 2010

Band Director: _____ Band Director Email: _____

School or University: _____ Year/Grade and Program: _____

How did you hear about NYB? Did someone recommend NYB? _____ Is this your first NYB audition? _____

Member Audition Fee: $20 Non-Member Audition Fee: $40

(The applicant/band director/private instructor is a member of CBA/CMEA. Name of CBA/CMEA Member: _____)

Mail completed form with audition fee (non-refundable), cassette or CD recording and copies of music to:

Troy Linsley, NYB Manager

c/o U of S Department of Music

28 Campus Drive • Saskatoon, SK S7N 0X1

telephone: 306-966-6177 email: troylinsley@sasktel.net

AUDITION DEADLINE: POSTMARKED NOVEMBER 15, 2009